SUMMER KICKOFF

June 7 | 10AM–12PM | Children's Library

LIBRARY NIGHT AT THE TRAVS

June 11 and July 23

Kids and teens 18 and under can get free USDA meals through Be Mighty Little Rock and the Central Arkansas Library System. Summer meal service runs from June 2 to August 8, 2025, Monday-Friday, at 10 library branches. Meals must be eaten on site. To volunteer, contact Jessica Frazier-Emerson at bemighty@cals.org.

Bridge 2 Success, a local vendor in Southwest Little Rock, prepares and delivers every free meal to the meal sites. Be Mighty Little Rock works with Bridge 2 Success to discuss popular menu items, dietary restrictions, delivery concerns, and the overall success of the afterschool meal program. CALS branch staff designs enrichment components that are offered alongside meals; activities range from “draw and describe your dream house” to “write something kind that you’ve done today” activity sheets.

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) provides funding for the programs and sets nutrition standards that programs must meet to receive reimbursements. Meal patterns for breakfast, lunch and supper require providers to serve fruits, vegetables, meat or protein alternatives, grains, and milk.
